

My favourite Christmas meal

We eat this at 1 o'clock on Christmas Day, I eat it with my family.

The house smells of delicious food. My tummy rumbles with because I am so hungry. The table is laid with a tablecloth, placemats, and our special knives and forks. Glasses are ready for drinks to be poured. Finally, I hear Mr Skelton shout, "Dinner is ready"!

We pull our crackers and start eating. In the middle of the table are 5 bowls, each one full to the top with different vegetables. Carrots, sprouts, parsnips, cauliflower, and roast potatoes. On my plate are three slices of turkey and some pigs in blankets. We all help ourselves to the food. I pour the gravy over my dinner. At last, we can begin.

The first bite of potato, turkey and cranberry is delicious. Cranberries mix with the hot crunchy potato. Turkey and gravy are hot and juicy. I look around at my family because for a moment I have forgotten they are with me. Everyone is eating quietly, and no-one is talking. We are all happy eating our favourite meal of the year.
