

RECEPTION HOME LEARNING PAGE

Hello Brilliant Butterflies. Welcome to another weeks home learning.

Here is a little message for you from Mrs Chandler.

Hello, I wanted to write to you, to let you know how incredibly proud I am of you all. It has been lovely seeing all the photographs of you working so hard on the different activities that your teachers have prepared for you. I have spoken to all your teachers who have been telling me all about your work too. Thank you - keep up the hard work!

This half term some of your friends in reception and year 1 will be joining the school as we begin to open. This will mean that all your teachers (from every year group), will be busy teaching throughout the week. As your teachers will be teaching in school all day, they will not be able to answer your emails and questions as often as they have been able to this half term. However, your teachers will still be setting you work to complete in the week and we know that you will continue to work hard and complete the activities. Teachers will not be able to respond to your work in as much detail but will still be looking at work that is sent into the school.

I have missed seeing you in school and missed our conversations, the rooms are very empty without you busily completing your work. I look forward to seeing the work that you continue to complete at home this half term and I know your teachers are planning lovely activities for you to have fun with.

Take care and I look forward to seeing you all in the future, when it is safe to do so.

Mrs. Chandler.

Week Beginning: Monday 1st June 2020

Keep on exploring Purple Mash! When you log on, look at the right hand side of the screen. Scroll down the feature menu and click on to the Weekly activities-(5-7). This week will look at weeks 9 activities.

The story is called Ned and the Jungle Animals. You can read and listen to the story and complete the activities each day.

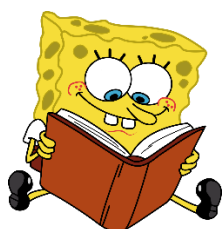

I am not setting any 2Do's as I would like you to choose the activities that you like and challenge your self to try and complete the next level.

Reading/Writing.

This week we are going to look at the story - Rumble in the Jungle Giles Andrea and David Wojtowycz. You may have this book at home, if not you can watch and listen to it on the link.

When you have listened to the story, read it again with the top tips and talk to about the story with your grown up.

You may want to look at the story with sign language as well.

If you ask your adult to click onto the link you will find lots of activities you can do about this story. They are lots of fun, enjoy them 😊

Keep on reading and writing your high frequency words-I have seen some super sentences using HFW 😊.

Don't forget your phonics!

Keep working on your phase 2/3 phonics - using the link.

You can play the games on this site and practise your phonics.

RE - The Parable of the Lost Son

Read: ¹¹ Then Jesus said, "A man had two sons. ¹² The younger son said to his father, 'Give me my share of the property.' So the father divided the property between his two sons. ¹³ Then the younger son gathered up all that was his and left. He travelled far away to another country. There he wasted his money in foolish living. ¹⁴ He spent everything that he had. Soon after that, the land became very dry, and there was no rain. There was not enough food to eat anywhere in the country. The son was hungry and needed money. ¹⁵ So he got a job with one of the citizens there. The man sent the son into the fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶ The son was so hungry that he was willing to eat the food the pigs were eating. But no one gave him anything. ¹⁷ The son realised that he had been very foolish. He thought, 'All of my father's servants have plenty of food. But I am here, almost dying with hunger. ¹⁸ I will leave and return to my father. I'll say to him: Father, I have sinned against God and against you. ¹⁹ I am not good enough to be called your son. But let me be like one of your servants.' ²⁰ So the son left and went to his father.

"While the son was still a long way off, his father saw him coming. He felt sorry for his son. So the father ran to him, and hugged and kissed him. ²¹ The son said, 'Father, I have sinned against God and against you. I am not good enough to be called your son.' ²² But the father said to his servants "Hurry! Bring the best clothes and put them on him. Also, put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.

Read: ²³ And get our fat calf and kill it. Then we can have a feast and celebrate! ²⁴ My son was dead, but now he is alive again! He was lost, but now he is found!' So they began to celebrate.

²⁵ The older son was in the field. As he came closer to the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. ²⁶ So he called to one of the servants and asked, 'What does all this mean?' ²⁷ The servant said, 'Your brother has come back. Your father killed the fat calf to eat because your brother came home safely!' ²⁸ The older son was angry and would not go in to the feast. So his father went out and begged him to come in. ²⁹ The son said to his father, 'I have served you like a slave for many years! I have always obeyed your commands. But you never even killed a young goat for me to have a feast with my friends. ³⁰ But your other son has wasted all your money. Then he comes home, and you kill the fat calf for him!' ³¹ The father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me. All that I have is yours. ³² We had to celebrate and be happy because your brother was dead, but now he is alive. He was lost, but now he is found.'"

Luke 15:11-32

Watch the video of the story.

The story of the 'Lost Son' teaches Christians that God is loving and forgiving like a parent.

Inside the parent/carers, draw or write what parents/carers do to show they love their children.

We hope that you enjoy activities, take care and keep safe.

Mrs Helm and Miss Edensor 😊
