

The Three Little Pigs

Story retold by Bev Evans

Once upon a time there were three little pigs who lived in a house with their mother. They wanted to build their own houses, so they left their home and waved goodbye to their mother.

They walked along a path and met a man with some straw. The first little pig built a house out of straw. The other two pigs met a man with some sticks. The second little pig built a house out of sticks. The third little pig walked a little further and met a man with some bricks. The third little pig built his house out of bricks.

One sunny day a hungry wolf came walking along the path.
