Newsletter Issue 9

9th November 2018

Welcome Back.

We very much hope that you have all had a fantastic half term break! It has been lovely to talk to all your children and listen to all the lovely activities that they took part in last week. We have got another busy half term here at Tynsel Parkes, there will be lots of exciting learning and many different activities leading up to the festive season, please look at future key dates through our newsletters and website.

Lest we forget:

100 years ago saw the end of 'Great War', today in school we took part in our act of remembrance, to remember those who gave so very much. I am sure many of you will be taking part in your own acts of remembrance on Sunday.

We have been selling poppies to support the Royal British Legion, if you would like to buy a poppy it is not too late, we still have plenty of poppies in the office with other stationery items.

Family Photos:

This year all orders for the photographs will be online, all the details are on the forms that accompanied your child's photograph. Orders need to be placed by Friday 23rd November, through the Tempest website. The photographs will be delivered to school, in time for Christmas! Any orders taken after the 23rd November will incur extra delivery charges.
